

Psalm 18:43-50

Explain the Context:

From your reading provide a short answer to the following:

What is the theme of these verses?	What is the BIG Idea?
What is something that surprised you?	What are these verses not saying?

Take a moment to consider these questions:

1) What “feuds of the enemy” has God freed you from?

2) In what ways do you remind God of who He is? How does this also remind you?

3) On the broadcast we talked about naming the lies (enemies) we have believed. Think about some internal enemies you have faced and name them here. What truth from God's word can you replace those lies with?

4) What thoughts about the nature of God did the mention of the story of the Prodigal Son bring up to you? Do you see God as a loving father that "runs to meet you" or of one that is vengeful and judgmental?

Apply the Scripture

Write the verse that stood out to you while reading [in this translation or your favorite].

How does this verse challenge you? Does it reveal an attribute of God's character?
